

This term in reading we are focusing on AF7

(Understanding the differences and similarities between texts.)

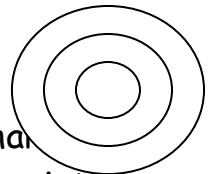

I must make simple connections between texts

I know that I have achieved my target when I can:

- Find similarities between two texts, e.g. similarities in plot, topic, and characters.
- Find simple similarities and differences between two versions of the same story.
- Understand that books are set in different times, places and cultures.

I should understand how somebody's background can change how they read or write a text.

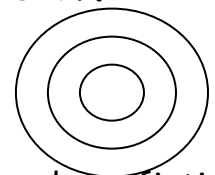

I know that I have achieved my target when I can:

- Find and briefly explain some similarities in the plot (storyline), characters, themes, settings and presentational features (e.g. pictures, bullet points).
- Find and briefly explain some similarities between books by the same author.
- Find and briefly explain some similarities between two versions of the same story.
- Understand that the writer's background can influence how they write.
- Simply explain how the time the book was written in or setting can change the meaning of texts.

I could understand and explain how somebody's background & culture can change how they read or write a text and change the meaning of the text.

I know that I have achieved my target when I can:

- Explain how and why the time the book was written in, or setting, can change the meaning of texts.
- Explain in detail various similarities between a range of fiction and non fiction texts and versions of the same text.
- Understand and explain how the writer's background can influence how they write.