

CHOCOLATE SENSATION ENDS

Today the unthinkable happened as ten year old boy Charlie Bucket found the final golden ticket in a old corner shop, in east London just a five minute walk away from wily wonkas chocolate factory. Charlie's living conditions are dreadful as Charlie's grandparents are very weak, however Charlie does have a very strong chance of winning the prize as he is very careful and sensible. Charlie's dad lost his job very recently and the family are living of vegetable soup and Cabbage soup.

Other winners: Charlie is the fifth winner after 4 other lucky children. Firstly, a ticket was found by the greedy Augustus Gloop in Germany then the next ticket was discovered by Veruca Salt, a spoilt brat whose dad used his nut factory to open Chocolate bars. Thirdly, Violet Beauregard, a gum chewer champion from the USA, was the next winner of a golden ticket. The previous winner was Mike Teevee who was not interested in winning this prize, as he is a obsessed gamer in his home in Colorado.

Charlie and his family are very short on supplies so they have to eat vegetable soup, there's no fancy things for Charlie and his family so they don't have any think to play with therefore Charlie has to make his own toys to play with, however Charlie's grandparents all have to sleep in the same bed.

Luckily, Charlie Bucket found a fifty pence lying in the snow with pure luck. So he ran to the corner shop to give it one last shot, there was no one to claim it so I took it. Charlie explained to the press. Charlie was bribed a lot in the shop but the shopkeeper protected him and just told him to run straight home and not to let anyone have it. Charlie had tried twice before, Firstly on his birthday and secondly his granddad gave him some money so they could have one last try. But both these attempts had failed.

Charlie has always dreamed of going to wily wonkas chocolate factory, and has yet to imagine what the prize maybe for wily wonkas once in a life time prize. Charlie expressed his happiness from these words , however Charlie's grandparents banned him from selling the ticket to a good offer. Charlie's grand parents are very ill and are getting worse in there living conditions.

Hopefully that will change after their trip to wily wonkas factory, in one day a once in a life time experience. We have yet to know what the prize may be.

Reported by Aamir and William