

WILLY WONKER'S WINNER.

Charlie Bucket is a poor 11 year old boy who lives in a toppled down, damp house with his whole family.

Therefore it is very cramped! A family friend quoted, "This generous boy deserves this magical ticket." Finally he had an lucky break by finding a £5 note on the floor.

Cheerfully Charlie ran into the small corner shop and finally grabbing hold of his first gleaming chocolate bar. Charlie, holding his lucky chocolate bar, slowly opened the brown wrapper. ,happily Charlie ran to his broken, crooked home, scrunching his shiny golden ticket in his cold dirty hands.

Charlie ran rapidly through his splintered door His proud granddad Joe, jumping out of his damp, mouldy, bed and as a result he immediately started dancing around the tiny house and shouted, "Yippee!"

After all that chocolate chaos the final ticket has dean found by Charlie bucket, the poor boy from London. He will be joining the others to go to the worlds most famous chocolate factory run by Willy Wonker.

By Grace and Kamran.