

WELL I'VE HEARD OF A BUCKET OF LUCK, BUT THIS IS REDICULOUS!

We have buckets full of news to give you today!

The last golden ticket found by the one and only Charlie Bucket. Where? In London, When? The 31st of January. Why? Well, a source told us that he had found 50p on the floor. Charlie reported: "We need the money more than the chocolate." On the other hand, he might be able to win this final prize!!!

This poor little boy lives in a small two room house but nevertheless he and his family cope with the horrible life.

With four grandparents restricted from everywhere but their bed Charlie and his parents have to do almost everything.

Charlie Bucket, is the extraordinary founder of the final golden ticket. This un-wealthy small child has become one of the most famous over night. Well, despite being poor I think he was given the money by his family, but Grandpa Joe reported: "He found the golden ticket in the local shop that he brought with some money he found on the floor."

The Bucket family.

There were many eyewitnesses about to witness the finding of the ticket. The owner of the shop quoted: "The boy opened the wrapper as if he NEW he would win the ticket" Then excitedly exclaimed "IN MY SHOP TOO!!!".

This really does tell you how poor he is since he found the money which got him the ticket on the floor! Amazing right?!?! His mother almost jumped out of her socks when he burst through the door, screaming: "IT'S MINE! IT'S MINE! THE FINAL GOLDEN TICKET IS MINE!!!!".

So the final five stars of WonKa's golden tickets are as the following, Augustus Gloop, Veruca Salt, Violet Beauregarde, Mike TeeVee and Charlie Bucket! The lucky winners will be going to the glorious factory on the 1st on February. Have a nice week readers!
