

LUCK IN THE BUCKET

Wonka's factory

Finally the search is over. Mr Charlie bucket has discovered the last golden ticket, the fortunate young boy was walking along the street of Dane when he came across a shimmer in the road he had found a pound coin. Suddenly he ran to the nearest sweet shop. He asked the shop keeper "can I have a Wonkers Whipple scrumptious fudge mallow delight ...

The golden ticket hunt is over, three months of chocolate feasting is done. First it was Mr Augustus Gloup, Next was Miss Varuca Salt, Thirdly it was miss violet beauagard, Then it was Mr mike Teeve and then finally Mr Charlie Bucket. Augustus Gloup is from Dusseldorf, Germany Violet from Atlanta USA, Varuca from Buckemshire, England, Mike is from Denver USA, Charlie is from London England.

"Mr Augustus Gloup would be stupid not to find a ticket as he eats so much chocolate a day he just had to." Quoted one man. Another man thought that after it took weeks for Varuca to discover her golden ticket People thought that Augustus had ate them all unknowingly." Varuca salt is a spoiled little brat who does not deserve to have a golden ticket." Said Miss Hoare as a factory worker who discovered the golden ticket but some say violet is a lovely young girl.

On the other hand, Charlie is not spoilt, fat or greedy he is quite the opposite he is not wealthy his story is quite breathe taking! Charlie was walking along the road when he found the pound that would change his life forever so he ran to bye a Wonkers bar and in side the last and final golden ticket. The public tied to bye the ticket."500 500 for your ticket". "600 600 for your ticket".

Charlie and the golden ticket.

Reported by Jodie Wood

